

SERU-I Newsletter

DECEMBER 2018

Dear SERU-I Members,

It is hard to believe that another successful year has passed, and the holiday season is upon us! In this SERU Newsletter I will reflect back on the results 2018. As I look back on our accomplishments over that time, I have a strong sense of enthusiasm and pride of our team and commitment to student success that resonates throughout our SERU Consortium.

Sincerely,

Igor Chirikov

In 2018 we organized two very successful SERU Symposia: SERU Symposium at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis and gradSERU Symposium in Hannover. We had three universities that administered ugSERU survey: Victoria University Wellington, Osaka University and Hiroshima University and two more universities that administered gradSERU survey: Lund University and Bremen University. We currently have HSE University, Utrecht University, University of Göttingen and Osaka University lined up to participate in the Graduate SERU in the coming winter wave.

We would like to thank our campus representatives, survey administration and data analysis team at i-graduate for their hard work and commitment to the improvement of student experience in the research universities!

The SERU-I team wish you a happy holiday season!
